

The Auctioneers Act
Instructions on Applying for an Auction Sales Company Licence

To be licensed as an auction sales company you will need:

- a) a registered name;
- b) an appropriate bond, and
- c) a completed application form.

1. Name registration:

All corporations and operating (business) names must be registered with the Corporate Registry of the Information Services Corporation (ISC). Phone 306-787-2962 for information on this procedure.

2. Bonding requirements:

Unless otherwise required, the usual bond amount is $25,000. PLEASE NOTE: Bonding amounts are subject to the Registrar's discretion and depends upon the assessed risk to the public.

Apply to your insurance agent or to any bonding company licensed under The Saskatchewan Insurance Act for a bond under The Auctioneers Act. See required penal bond wording document. As an alternate bonding source, the Saskatchewan Auctioneers Association may be contacted at:

Box 773,
North Battleford, SK S9A 2Y9
Phone 306-441-2265

The original bond is to be signed and sealed by the insurance company and signed by:

- a Director (if a corporation)
- all Partners (if a partnership)
- an Individual (if a sole-proprietorship)

If the bond is through the Saskatchewan Auctioneers Association, the Association must forward confirmation directly to the Consumer Protection Division.

3.(a) Complete all pages of the application in full.

There are two types of applications:

- Application as an Auction Sales Company (3 pages)
- Application as an Auctioneer (2 pages) - see #6 on the next page

Please note, the designated mailing address (section 4 on the application) is used for mailing of correspondence from the Consumer Protection Division for routine correspondence, information, complaints and renewal notice.

Consumer Protection Division requires an email address for the business.

3.(b) Notice required of all changes on the application

Written notice to Consumer Protection Division is required, where any changes occur that affect or change the information on the application.

4. Licence fees are as follows:

Licenses are valid for five years from date of issue unless otherwise suspended or cancelled. Auction Sales Company $1,000 (includes one person named as designed official/auctioneer) Auctioneer $250 (other than the designated official).

5. Mail the following to this office:

- Completed application form(s) - with signatures.
- Licence fee(s) in the correct amount - see #4 above.
- Original bond signed and sealed by bonding company along with the signature(s) of director(s) (if corporation); all partners (if partnership); or the owner (if sole-proprietorship).

6. GENERAL INFORMATION:

An auction sales company means an individual, firm or corporation that holds a sale by auction of any property. Each Auction Sales Company may authorize one designated official.

A designated official may act as an auctioneer for the auction sales company and no additional auctioneer licence is required as long as the designated official is only auctioneering for that auction sales company. If the designated official wishes to auctioneer for another company, they must become licensed separately as an auctioneer.

An auctioneer means an individual who conducts the bidding at a sale by auction of any property. A licensed auctioneer may act for any licensed auction sales company.

7. General Remarks - The application information is to be legible or it will be returned.

Every applicant for a licence should become familiar with the Act and Regulations. Also every applicant should exercise care in completing the application form. Extra care will avoid delays which occur when applications must be returned because of incomplete answers, incorrect fees.
