Affidavit of Travis Dyck

I, Travis Dyck, of the City of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, MAKE OATH/AFFIRMATION AND SAY THAT:

1. I am the sole director and a senior officer of CSPULTRALITESOLAR INC. ("CSP"), and as such, have personal knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed to, except where stated to be learned from someone else, and where to stated, I do believe the same to be true.
2. On or about January 8, 2015 I was appointed as the sole director and a senior officer of CSP and have been responsible for the management and day to day operation of CSP.
3. CSP is in the business of the technology research and development and has not since inception generated revenue or profit and therefore has been principally reliant of equity financing to fund its business.
4. Throughout my tenure as a director and officer CSP has been unable to attract, engage or retain additional directors, officers or employees as CSP has been unsuccessful during my tenure in raising equity or debt financing and therefore has extremely limited funds for remuneration and the Order dated February 5, 2018, as amended, limits the ability of the CSP to issue securities under an exemption as remuneration in lieu of salary or cash compensation.
5. CSP has had considerable difficulty in engaging consultants and service providers as it has very limited funds to pay remuneration and the Order, as amended, limits the ability of the CSP to rely on an exemption to issue securities as compensation for services or in lieu of cash payment of debt.
6. The limited funds available to CSP are principally funds that I have personally loaned to CSP have to cover administration costs.
7. The Order, as amended, provides, among other things, that CSP may not rely on any exemptions in the Saskatchewan securities laws to trade in any securities or derivates in Saskatchewan for a period of five years from the date of the Order other than a trade in securities or derivatives of its own issue in Saskatchewan if the trade is made through a registered dealer under the Act authorized to trade in this type of security or derivative.

8. CSP does not know how to issue securities and derivatives to any of directors, officers, employees, consultants, service providers and lenders through a registered dealer.
9. CSP needs to attract and remunerate its directors, officers and employees, and as CSP has been unsuccessful in raising additional debt or equity financing, the only practical means available is through the issuance of securities and derivatives.
10. CSP need to be able to compensate service providers and pay bona fida debt and, for the same reasons provided, the only practical means available is through the issuance of securities and derivatives.
11. In order to issue securities and derivatives to directors, officers, employees, consultants, service providers and lenders CSP will need to be able to rely on an exemption as its unclear how to trade in securities to these individuals through a registered dealer and this has precluded the ability of CSP to engage such persons.
